

Don't miss two wonderful programs making their debut at the City Heights Performance Annex!

City Heights Urban Village Performance Annex

Proudly Presents:

Friday, October 22nd 7:30PM

World premiere screenings of new works by Award Winning veteran media maker, Zeinabu Irene Davis.

Co-Motion: Stories of Breastfeeding Women of Color is a half hour documentary essay that explores the world of breastfeeding from a perspective that is primarily African American.

Momentum: A Conversation with Black Women PhDs, is a 22 minute testimonial to the achievement of a small group of African American women who earned their PhDs at UCSD in June 2009.

Friday, October 29th 7:30PM

Channeling The Spirit of Jazz :

with songstress Nnenna Ukwu accompanied by Dwight Love on guitar; Ed Koenhauser on piano; Darren Wagner on bass; Rhys Greene on drums, performing favorite blues and Jazz standards.

About Nnenna Ukwu

Nnenna Ukwu is a singer, actress, and writer with a degree in Theater from Yale University and a degree in Musical Theater Writing from New York University's Tisch School of the Arts. Her musical influences include Lauryn Hill, India.Arie and Ella Fitzgerald, among many other soulful songbirds. She is excited to be making her San Diego singing debut with the City Heights Weingart Library & Performance Annex and looks forward to lending her talents to other community events in the future.

Refreshments will be served

