

DISABILITY STUDIES WORKSHOP

TECHNOLOGY, PEDAGOGY, DISCIPLINARITY

MAY 9, 2008 10-6

MAY 10, 2008 10-3

UCSD DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNICATION
Media Culture Communication Building Room 201

A two-day series of workshops for faculty, staff and graduate students from across the UC campuses focusing on furthering interdisciplinary, intercampus curricular development, dialog and networking on scholarship and teaching in disability studies.

KEYNOTE PRESENTATIONS:

Georgina Kleege

Teaches creative writing and disability studies at UC Berkeley
Author of Sight Unseen and Blind Rage: Letters to Helen Keller

Catherine Kudlick

Professor of History, UC Davis

Author of Reflections: the Life and Writings of a Young Blind Woman in Postrevolutionary France and
"Disability History: Why We Need Another 'Other'" in The American Historical Review

Sue Schweik

Professor of English, UC Berkeley

Author of The Ugly Laws (forthcoming) and

"Disability Politics and American Literary History: Some Suggestions," in American Literary History.

More information can be found at: <http://ucdisabilitystudies.ucsd.edu/twiki/bin/view/DisabilityStudies/WebHome>
For further information and to request accommodation email: lisac@ucsd.edu

Campus maps, parking information and directions are available at: <http://communication.ucsd.edu/intro/maps.html>

WITH SUPPORT FROM

UC Humanities Research Institute

UCSD Social Science Dean's Office

UCSD Communication

UCSD Lesbian Gay Bisexual Transgender Resource Center

UCSD Critical Gender Studies

UCSD Literature

UCSD Humanities Dean's Office

The UCSD Laboratory of Comparative Human Cognition