

UC San Diego

Department of Communication Major and Minor Requirements

● Major Requirements

13 Courses, must be taken for letter grade

One Lower Division Core Course

COMM 10: Introduction to Communication

Four Upper Division Core Courses

- COMM 100A: Comm, the Person, & Everyday Life
- COMM 100B: Comm, Culture, & Representation
- COMM 100C: Comm, Institutions, & Power
- COMM 190: Junior Seminar

Eight Upper Division Electives

- Maximum of 6 Intermediate Upper Division electives from COMM 101 - 119
- ▲ At least 2 Advanced Upper Division electives from COMM 120 - 189

● Minor Requirements

7 Courses, must be taken at UCSD for letter grade

One Lower Division Core Course

COMM 10: Introduction to Communication

Two Upper Division Core Courses

Choose 2 COMM 100 Courses ●

Four Upper Division Electives

- Maximum of 3 Intermediate Upper Division electives from COMM 101 - 119 ●
- At least 1 Advanced Upper Division elective from COMM 120 - 189 ▲

Prerequisites

- Completion of COMM 10 or concurrent enrollment
- Junior standing, completion of COMM 10, and one COMM 100
- ▲ Completion of COMM 10 and one COMM 100 (A, B, or C)

Notes

- Students can petition for a maximum of 2 courses towards the major as COMM intermediate electives. These courses can be taken outside of the department (AIP 197, Study Abroad, other UC campus courses, or COMM 198/199, etc.)
- Students cannot petition for any courses taken outside of UCSD Communication Department (including COMM 198 & COMM 199 courses) to satisfy any minor requirements

For more info, visit www.communication.ucsd.edu